PRESS STATEMENT

ACC NOT INVESTIGATING TWO CABINET MINISTERS

The Anti-Corruption Commission wishes to clarify information circulating in the media that the Commission is investigating the Minister of Finance and National Planning Hon. Situmbeko Musokotwane and the Minister of Infrastructure Hon. Charles Milupi over alleged corrupt practices involving bribery.

The Commission wishes to inform the public that the Commission is not investigating the two cabinet Ministers over the alleged corrupt practices. In addition, the two Ministers have never been summoned by the Commission over the alleged corrupt practices.

Therefore the information circulating in the media over this matter should be treated as false.
